2016 Los Angeles Artadia Awardees Announced

Artadia today announced the winners of the 2016 Los Angeles Artadia Awards: Dan Finsel and Mariah Garnett. Each will receive $10,000 in unrestricted funds as well as access to other benefits of the Artadia Awards program. This is the second year Artadia has held a round of awards for artists in Los Angeles. Jarrett Gregory, associate curator of contemporary art at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art; Mark Beasley, curator at Performa in New York; and Kris Kuramitsu, deputy director and senior curator at The Mistake Room, were all involved in the judging process.

The 2016 Los Angeles Artadia Awardees will also be eligible for the inaugural National Artadia Award, which will be presented at the end of 2016.
